FINANCIAL SERVICES FOR THE GREATER GOOD

It's Oklahoma College Savings Plan Month! We're here to help keep your plan on track.

Dear Oklahoma College Savings Plan Account Owner,

Autumn colors, football games, family festivals ... you name it. Fall means something special to everyone. Since it also means back-to-school, it's the perfect time to consider the value of ongoing contributions to your Oklahoma College Savings Plan (OCSP) Account.

Even in an uncertain economy, regular, modest contributions to your Account can make a difference. To help, we offer the Automatic Contribution Plan. With it, contributions come directly from your checking or savings account, so making regular investments can be even easier. In addition, your employer may offer Automatic Payroll Deduction service, in which you can elect to have your contributions come out of your paycheck. Find out more.

GREAT NEWS! Now you can make an online withdrawal request.

Be Creative @ Saving for College winners announced.

Developing solid reading skills is critical to the academic success of all Oklahoma children. That's why we partnered with the Oklahoma Department of Libraries as part of its "Be Creative @ Your Library" Summer Reading Program. We gave parents of summer reading program participants the opportunity to enter the Be Creative @ Saving for College Sweepstakes, which took place from June 1 through July 31.

During a ceremony at the State Capitol on August 18, we awarded $5,000 toward an OCSP Account to Tyler Conger, age 11, from Moore, OK, and we also donated $1,500 to his library, the Moore Public Library. Congratulations!

Thank you for being an OCSP Account Owner.

We know what it takes to make investments a part of your family's budget, and we salute your commitment to achieving this long-term education investment goal.

Sincerely,

Scott Meacham
